The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

Palmer Svalstad, a Lemon Grove contractor, and a pretty good one, too, stopped by our office the other day.

"I don't know if I want to run for school board again," he said. "You don't get many thanks for the time and effort you put in as a school trustee," he pointed out.

Svalstad is concluding his first full term as trustee of the Grossmont High School District and his thoughts are probably no different than those of every trustee as he werstles with his conscience at election time.

Svalstad is a quiet man and appears to speak only after he has weighed his thoughts carefully. I've followed his school board career because he is the only representative from the Lemon Grove area. He is extremely cost conscious in the construction end of school expenses. It was he who insisted that the district acquire the services of an architect who had a record of economy where previously expensive floss and frills in our school buildings had been the order of the architect's day. He won his point and Mt. Miguel high school is being built on Sweetwater as one of the lowest per square foot costs in the state.

We sincerely hope Palm Svalstad runs again and is elected.

Speaking of elections, Gerard A. Dougherty, printer, pressman, playwright and sometime candidate for the City of San Diego council, is at it again. He stopped by to announce his candidacy for the third councilmanic district which takes in part of the Adams Avenue District. We have a warm feeling for Dougherty because he was our composing room foreman at this newspaper for a couple of years. He worked here when we aided in an attempt to get Lemon Grove to incorporate and he favored it strongly too, although he lived in San Diego and could not vote that issue any more than we can vote for Dougherty at the upcoming San Diego election.

Gerry has some cogent thoughts about the "politicians who run S A Diego," and the tall, lank Irishman will furnish a good 15 minute melodrama built around the road map to the black abyss the present council is leading the city into, if you give him half a chance.

"Gerry," I asked, "what would be your attitude if you were elected to San Diego City Council and the mayor asked your group to consider annexing Lemon Grove?"

"Why, I'd fight against that all the way," Dougherty said. "Lemon Grove is too nice a community to get messed up by those bums."

—o—

The new water line being installed along Main Street brought some improvements over and above eventual better water pressure for our citizens. The contractor, in back-filling, contoured the west bank on the railroad property between Broadway and North Streets. An attractive improvement that wasn't even contracted for, we imagine.

If they had reached a little further and leveled it with the other side of the tracks it would have been an even better improvement and they could have had a set of hardly used railroad tracks for junk and several hundred fair-to-middlin' railroad ties in the bargain.

For a bonus, they could have that raucously loud whistle the SDE choo-choo blows too often and too long.

—o—

We are enthused about the County Y-Indian Guide program in which fathers with six-year-old sons embark upon a program designed to keep companionship strong between them throughout life. In the Mohican Tribe which is made up of seven Lemon Grove lads and their papas, the Big Braves were rocked back on their heels at a recent pow-wow.

I[illegible]ican Chief Dewey Franklin circled the Little Braves about him as he related the story of bravery concerning a little Indian who lived in Arizona a couple of generations ago who saved his tribe from starvation by going into the Arizona mountains to work a topaz mine, first killing a mountain lion which stood in his way. Topaz stones, according Franklin, were worked into [illegible]mered silver by the little [illegible] and the resultant jewelry

Control Board Expresses Concern Over Future Of Youth Center

A public meeting has been called by the directors of the Lemon Grove Youth Center to discuss the future of that facility. The meeting wil be held Tuesday, February 5th, at 7:30 p.m. at the Youth Center on School Lane.

At the same meeting a nominating committee will be chosen for acquiring names of persons who will run for Youth Center offices for the coming year at an election to be held February 20th. Tom Warburton, principal of Grossmont High School is present president.

Members of the Youth Center have been concerned about references made concerning the replacement of the present building.

David Bird, county supervisor, stated earlier this year that a branch library building might be built in Lemon Grove. County representatives have been examining property in the general area of downtown Lemon Grove for a possible site. It was indicated that a site big enough to accommodate a community center would also be considered. This would indicate that the Youth Center would be moved or demolished.

Public reaction to the prospect of losing the present youth facility before another one is quired before another one is quired has ben definite and great.

"Our organization (Youth Center Control Board) does not wish to give up any part of the youth property until adequate replacement is made by the county," said Marie Howell, officer of the Board.

Joe Cannizzerra, president of the Lemon Grove Men's Club said "They wil have to take the youth building away from us over my dead body."

Frank Armstrong, director of the Youth Center said that he was surprised that local organizations had not been contacted regarding plans for the county improvementes in the community.

Swimming Pool Association president Frenchy Faucher offered to supply a site for the Youth Center building "if someone pays for the moving". The Association presently owns land at Mt. Vernon and Washington Streets.

No schedule has been set by the county for construction of the library, and/or other buildings.

ROTARY CONVENTION TO DRAW FIFTY FROM GROVE

Dr. Harry Sorteberg, 1885 Skyline Drive, president of the Lemon Grove Rotary Club said that approximately 50 members of the local club would be among the 3,000 Rotarians and their wives attending the annual District Conference February 7, 8 and 9 at the El Cortez Hotel.

One feature is a breakfast meeting scheduled for February 8 at which the presidents and secretaries of 40 clubs will be present.

Members will come from Rotray District which includes San Diego, Riverside and Imperial Counties.

Lemon Grove members are planning to attend at least one of the sessions during the three day event and take their Rotarianes with them. Dr. Sorteberg said.

THINGS DOIN' & BREWIN'

About Civic Center

By DICK HENDERSON

Monday, January 21, 1957, will linger long in the memories of the members of the Board of Supervisors of San Diego County, SS.

On that day, memorable in the history of these United States of America, Dwight David Eisenhower was inaugurated for the second time as President and Richard Nixon was inaugurated for the second time as Vice President. Both of these gentlemen were observed and admired by 150,000 fellow citizens, including guards of honor, 50 bands, floats and other pageantry, with a parade that took six hours to pass the reviewing stand, the wives of the honorees seated on the platform with their eyes on their respective husbands.

Truly a far cry from the inauguration of Thomas Jefferson, who rode a horse, unattended, to the White House, was sworn in by Chief Justice Marshall, and took over the job as third president of these United States.

Lemon Grove was represented at the ceremony on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Byron Netzley, at the special invitation of Vice President Nixon. Byron and Mrs. Netzley had been schoolmates of Nixon's at Whittier College.

The board of supervisors didn't have any part in the inaugural ceremonies, just went on with their regular meeting. We just dragged in this introduction to get Lemon Grove into the picture. Also, we hope our historical reference is correct, but we may be wrong as to the president and his horse.

Y'see, the supervisors inaugurated two new members in January, 1957, when James R. Robbins finished his third term and was succeeded by Robert Dent, elected last November. Jim didn't "choose to run" again—said he had had enough. The other member "inaugurated" was Frank A. Gibson, who was re-elected, and his swearing in was an old story.

Matters Set for Hearing and Appearances

Hearing on Resolution of Intention to vacate a portion of the unnamed street (now Nixon Street) between Lots 42 and 35 in Sub. No. 5 of Lot 12 of Rancho Mission of San Diego, as requested by Land Title Insurance Co. (Planning commission recommends vacation of the portion of said street lying between Imperial Avenue and Alta Vista Avenue concurrent with approval of final map of Larwood Park, Unit 3, and for the remainder of said street concurrent with the approval of any subsequent units of Larwood Park affected by the existence of said street. (Map not received as yet.)

Welfare Matters

The board to determine the liability of responsible relatives of 63 recipients of old age security.

Director of public welfare recommends the district attorney be authorized to take appropriate action to obtain completed statement of forms (Ag 225) from responsible relatives of 22 recipients of old age security, also that he be authorized to proceed against responsible relatives of four recipients of OAS.

DPW requests ratification of its action in expending funds to return clients to their places of legal residence as follows:

Woman to Bar Harbor, Maine, by air ambulance service, on advice of physician, $795.

Man, wife and child to Tacoma, Washington, $68.55.

Request of Kenneth G. Harvey for the refund of the $15 deposit made November 14, 1955, with his application for a public dance license at Kenney's Cafe in Lemon Grove, on which the sheriff withheld approval until repairs were made to the building. Mr. Harvey now states that no dancing was held there last year, and he does not plan to have it again.

Request of Victor I. Mackenzie for an extension of time for the completion of two surplus federal housing buildings on his property in Spring Valley, and recommendation of DPW that an extension of 30 days be granted.

As directed by the board on November 20, 1956, No. 61B, county counsel submits an amendatory resolution with respect to the Spring Valley Sanitation District fund, providing for the transfer of $200 from the operating fund to the special fund, transfer no funds shall be transferred from the operating fund of said district to the special fund except revenue derived from taxation or from sources other than sewer charges or connection fees.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

We are speaking solely for the Casa de Oro PTA in answer to the recent statements made by Aloysius H. Seubert, JMJ

It seems obvious to us that Mr. Seubert is not acquainted with the objects and endeavors of PTA work when he asks "Can you remember in the last 20 years when a PTA undertook an activity to aid the children in school?" Perhaps Mr. Seubert would be interested in hearing the objects of the PTA in existence since 1897.

1. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community.
2. To raise the standards of home life.
3. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
4. To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.
5. To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Among the many activities of the Casa de Oro PTA is a highly successful summer recreation program, designed primarly to direct summer leisure hours into planned constructive channels. This program is carried out for a seven week period each summer, solely by Casa de Oro PTA volunteer help.

Approximately 40 mothers give unstintingly of their time and ability four days a week teaching 11 classes. Not only has this program helped in the juvenile delinquent problem, but the children are learning worthwhile skills.

In direct contradiction to Mr. Seubert's closing remark, "Children are a necessary evil to be tolerated," this unit feels proud to serve the children of its community in any way possible, and our records prove that many benefits have been derived from our efforts. Our school principal, Fredric Burkhardt, said, "I would like to publicly congratulate our PTA for the excellent job they are doing."

In conclusion, we wish to go

New Equipment Acquired By Newspaper

If your newspaper looks a little brighter this week it's because of a brand new linecasting machine.

The machine, an Intertype model G4 was delivered by the Intertype factory late last week and replaces an older model used previously to set the newspaper.

The new machine is replete with electronic devices, automatic features and a complete new family of type faces.

The cost of the new machine is approximately equal to that of a new three bed room house, with a brand new automobile in the garage.

Road Block, Cage Game, Mothers March Aid Polio

Battling adverse weather conditions, March of Dimes volunteer workers planned a sweeping finish this weekend to the annual polio fund campaign in this area.

Friday night the Associated Student Body of the Grossmont and Cajon Valley High Schools will stage a half-time student sponsored March of Dimes solicitation as those two schools meet in a basketball game on the Grossmont gym floor.

On Saturday the "Road Block" engineered by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Auxiliary, will garner contributions for the fund.

Personnel from the VFW groups wil be aligned at Massachusetts Avenue and Broadway in lanes which motorists will be invited to enter and pay a "fine" into March of Dimes cannisters. The contributing motorists will be given the framed miniature "Blue Crutch" as a "receipt" for contributions.

The "Road Block" event was postponed from last Saturday because of inclement weather. Cancelled outright was a scheduled appearance of movie stars in a variety show because of the weather. Washed out and frozen out also was an appearance of the Lemon Grove Junior High School band on Tuesday afternoon.

Today, Thursday, the "Mothers March" in this area is being staged. Salk vaccine record cards are being distributed to homes as the mothers solicit funds for the polio fund. The project here is being handled by the various Parent-Teacher organizations.

Some three hundred people gathered at Lemon Grove Junior High School last Saturday night to join in the square Dance March of Dimes benefit.

The affair, as well as the money realized for the polio fund won the unstinted praise of general chairman W. B. Paul. The dance, staged by the Levis and Laces Square Dance Club and the Lemon 8'ers Square Dance Club, in cooperation with Lemon Grove business men drew attendance from many clubs over a wide San Diego County area. Clarence Montgomery, veteran square dance caller had assembled musicians and callers from far and wide and those participating were so numerous that pages would be required to list them all. Especial credit goes to members of the Kiwanis Club for their work in doing the chores connected with such an affair, to dance chairman, Mrs. Kathryn Richardson, to helpers, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ott, to members of the Lemon Grove Junior High School cafeteria and custodial staffs, and to several merchants who chose to remain anonymous.

BETROTHAL TO NAVY MAN TOLD

MARRIAGE PLANS—for the summer of 1957 now occupy the thoughts of Madeline Lee Peckstein, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Peckstein, 7885 Sanford Avenue, Lemon Grove, announce her betrothal to James F. Ellison.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Ellison Jr., Denison, Texas. He is in the U. S. Navy, stationed at North Island.

Madeline is a junior at Helix High School.

WASHINGTON SUMMARY by ED KOTERBA

COLD SHOULDERS. The frigid attitude of Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn toward Vice President Nixon is an open secret around Capitol Hill . . . The Texan at one time vowed he would never forgive Nixon for blaspheming the Democrats . . . However, the other day—perhaps for the first time on record—Rayburn reluctantly posed for a photo with the vice president . . . It was published in the Capitol Hill's newspaper, Roll Call.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson has thawed his icy approach toward newsmen . . . Best guesses are that he's warming up to them in anticipation of a tough re-election fight in Texas next year . . .

TITO VISIT. Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia IS planning to visit the President this year . . . He has requested the White House to keep the plans secret until arrangements are completed.

There'll be much howling on Capitol Hill from men like Sens. McCarthy and Jenner, but the State Department will insist it's all for better "world understanding".

BUDGET CUTS. That $71.8 billion request for federal spending in 1958 may be cut as much as $1.5 bilion before Congress gets through trimming the budget . . . The cuts will be mosty in foreign aid and domestic funds.

No military cuts in the budget are foreseen.

MID-EAST PLAN. President Eisenhower's proposal to use standby military and economic measures in the Mid-East is expected to pass both the House and the Senate in the next four weeks.

Congressmen, who claim the President already has that authority, will insist, however, on a few minor changes in the plan.

FARM NOTES. The U. S. is now bogged down with 919.9 million bushels of surplus corn . . . It's the greatest surplus commodity, today, pasing up wheat.

To give you an idea how much corn that is, if it were placed in bushels side by side, the bushels would reach around the world more than 15 times!

Top grade beef is now in greater supply on meat counters than in the past ten years . . . Ironically, the price remains fairly high because of the great demand.

Community Spirit Hits A New Peak

Cooperation?
Community Spirit?

Terms you idly bandy about with little thought regarding their real meaning. Terms that dinner club members spout out and politicians toy with when election time is near.

Brother, those terms came alive last Saturday night as the clock ticked off the final moments of the Polio Benefit Square Dance at the Lemon Grove Junior High School Auditorium. More than 300 people, gathered there, could testify about the things cooperation and community spirit can accomplish.

Conceived in haste and as afterthought, executed in the spare time its workers could spare from the necessity of making a living, the affair was a huge social, financial and moral success.

To the Levis and Laces Square Dance Club, The Lemon 8'ers, to the stalwart moral support and WORK put in by members of the Kiwanis Club, to the very efficient cafeteria staff of the junior high school, to the cooperative spirit of the Lemon Grove School District administration and trustees, to those merchants whose anonymous gifts helped, and to W. B. Paul, March of Dimes general chairman, go a lot of credit.

Why, because they all joined in a cooperative move, they all understood and made work "community spirit"

It is heartening in this day of apathy on the part of the general citizenship, the lethargy of many service and business clubs and groups, to find those who can breathe life into a real community enterprise.

Fletcher Answers Questions On Annexation Friday

Assistant San Diego City Manager Thomas W. Fletcher is set to answer questions about the problems connected with possible annexation of the Lemon Grove area to San Diego. He will appear before the Lemon Grove Men's Club at its noonday meeting at Michael's and he said it was his intention to carry on from his last appearance here with his files on annexation research and inquiry. He plans no formal address, but has decided to make his appearance a purely question and answer session.

Fletcher said that contrary to popular belief, the city manager's office approached the problem of annexation from a strictly neutral viewpoint, and in many cases recommendations against annexation had been given to the San Diego city commision by his office.

Deaf Ear To 'Dry Islands' Bids For Inclusion In Helix District

Helix Irrigation District Directors have called a halt to their previous policy of absorbing "dry islands" which may be situated within the district boundaries. Reason: Not enough water for the parched throats and burning lawns of folk already within the district boundaries.

The decision was reached last week and is actually a change in the district's policy. It followed a request for the inclusion of an 11-acre island in the El Cajon area, owned by R. L. Benson. The vote was 4 to 1 with director Nat Eggert dissenting.

Explanation of the background of the problem is rather complicated. A number of years ago the Irrigation District adopted a major inclusion plan, aimed at wiping out scores of large and small dry "islands" existing within its boundaries and did include several hundred such acres at that time. But many of the owners of such islands then opposed annexation to the district, so the areas were not included and were not entitled to Colorado river water.

These irregular areas within the district vexed the Metropolitan Water District because it complicated their boundary and annexation problems.

So when the Lakeside-Santee areas formed the Rio San Diego Municipal Water District, Metropolitan insisted that those remaining dry islands within the Helix district should be included in the Rio formation. This would enable them to be included in the Helix district without the necessity of each island going through the red tape required to get water from MWD and County Water Authority.

Rio didn't like the idea very much, however, at that time, it appeared that it would never become a Rio problem, since Rio couldn't serve the islands in the Helix district anyway and inclusion in the latter would be a matter for Helix to handle.

The Helix directors, therefore, have had a policy of including such islands as they sought annexation and have included several already. People owning those areas have been paying taxes to Rio, the MWD, and the CWA and are entitled to receive Colorado river water.

But now it appears that the supply of water will be very limited in 1958 unless a great deal of rain falls and the runoff provides the margin necesary for safety within the Helix district.

The Helix directors, therefore, believe that what water they can buy from Metropolitan should be reserved for those currently in the district. They believe that they should not add new dry island customers to the lines until a sufficient water supply is assured.

The board expresed the opinion that it has an obligation to present district tax payers first.

Some members of the board have said that they believe that the district has a moral obligation to serve the dry islands but the majority say that their first obligation is to conserve water to the use of the present customers.

SCIENCE CONTEST WINNERS—Lemon Grove Elementary Schools sent sixth graders off to Palomar Mountains recently on a "scientific expedition". They saw the observatory, the weather station and the radar post. When they returned many entered an essay contest sponsored by this newspaper.

Winners shown holding the trophies they won are: Gary Lee Thompson, 7231 Blackton Drive; Jean Leonesio, 7602 Circle Drive; Carol Foster, 1490 Skyline and Kenny Van Dyke, 2721 Washington. Gary won the Lemon Grove REVIEW trophy which was presented by Max Goodwin; Carol took the Lions Club trophy which was presented by V. J. Dorman; Jean was winner of the L. G. Jr. Chamber of Commerce trophy which was presented by Arthur Pugatz, and Kenny received the Kiwanis trophy from past president Dr. Robert Swenson. Gary is a sixth grader at San Miguel school. The rest are from junior high school. —L.G. Camera Foto

Captain Wesanen visited Commander "Pop" Yeo, 1727 Skyline Drive. The two officers worked together at Naval Air Station prior to the last war and have maintained contact with each other since then.

Captain Wesanen completed his tour of inspection in San Diego early and spent part of the day here including a visit with the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club.

The elections assembly was held the Friday before election day to introduce the final candidates running for the ASB offices. Last years' officers were introduced from the stage in the auditorium. Skits were given by the candidates seeking the office of president.

Two finalists for each office were chosen by the school at a recent convention. Delegates from each section took the number of votes from each class they represented and totaled them at the convention.

Guests introduced in the assembly program were Linda Hess, Susane Barr, Leslie Wright, Cindy Pratt and Jim Shacklett.

Mrs. Harold L. Perkins, 6927 Waite Drive, is the new Motor Corps Chairman of the Lemon Grove Branch, American Red Cross; succeeding Mrs. Frank Armstrong, whose untiring efforts to build up the corps have identified her with the Red Cross not only locally but also throughout the San Diego Chapter. Mrs. Le Roy Bellwood continues as vice-chairman.

The appointment of Mrs. Perkins was made at a luncheon held recently in Mrs. Armstrong's 8230 Golden Avenue home, at which her hostess expressed her appreciation of co-operation extended her. The following Motor Corps drivers were in attendance: Margaret Southwick, Frankie Dudley, Althea Jacobs, and Peggy Little.

Branch Building Use Increases

Use of the Branch Building Inspection Office In El Cajon has been very gratifying since it was opened about three weeks ago. So says San Diego County Supervisor David W. Bird.

Building permits may be secured, fees paid, and inspection compliance acts carried out at the office located at 110 East Lexington Avenue. Time and money saved for persons of this area in negating trips to down town San Diego were the impelling factors in opening the office.

The extent to which this new facility is used will decide in the minds of the county supervisors whether or not it should be kept open permanently.

Girls To Finish Peanut Sales Event This Week

Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls in Lemon Grove and throughout the county, will wind up their annual peanut sale this week-end.

As they enter the home stretch of the sale, the girls are making an all-out effort to wind up their project with record breaking sales, according to Frank Armstrong, chairman for this area.

The vacuum packed cans of peanuts are being sold from booths set up in the business districts, as well as from house to house.

The 3000 young sales girls want to sell 120,000 cans of peanuts by Saturday night, which will earn for them more than $20,000. This figure, acording to Armstrong, will provide the necessary means to improve and maintain Camp Wolahi in Cuymaca Mountains and Camp Loligro in Balboa Park, the girls' two camp sites. It will also mean additional funds to expand the Camp Fire youth program throughout the county.

Theatre parties, to be announced later, are being planned for all girls who have taken part in the sale.

Every member of every group which reaches its quota of two cases per girl, will receive a certificate of merit.

Methodist Youth To Present Sunday's Worship And Program

The young people of the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Lemon Grove Methodist Church will take over the leadership of the morning service Sunday in observance of National Youth Week. Each year, the youth of the church demonstrate in this way their growing abilities to do an adult piece of work and lead adults in an inspiring manner in their worship.

This year, three of the young people will speak in the usual sermon time. They are Judy Myers, President of the Senior MYF, Dorothy Berger, Secretary, and Bob Fredricks, Chairman of the Christian Witness Area. Their general theme will be: "Consider Your Call As A Christian". Judy Myers, one of this group, has recently become active in the United Christian Youth Movement television program "Words and Music" on Channel 10. Judy is working on the monthly youth emphasis shows of this program sponsored by the San Diego Council of Churches.

Other young people will conduct the service of worship on Youth Sunday. Curtis Barlow, Jr., Chairman of the Christian Citizenship Area wil preside over the service. Elizabeth Pendergrass will sing a special youth solo. Barbara Beasley will be the youth organist for the service, and other youth will serve as ushers.

This worship service is part of a nation-wide United Christian Youth movement recognition of the parts that young people play in the life of today's church. Friends of the youth are cordially invited to the services at 11 a.m. The church is located at 3205 Washington Street.

Pitchfork Celloist, Relief Pastor For Lutheran Programs

Newly elected officers of Lemon Grove Lutheran Church were installed at the 11 a.m. service last Sunday by Pastor H. C. Bakken.

Sunday Orben Sime, pitchfork celloist and thereminist, will present a program at 7:30 p.m.

Sime is a native of Wisconsin who at the age of 12 years conceived a new type musical instrument, the pitchfork cello, has been travelling for more than 38 years presenting his unusual act at churches and hospitals.

The instrument has no strings or keys and the sound it gives forth is generated by static electricity produced by the human body in close proximity to the instrument.

The performance he gives covers 60 minutes of sacred and other music. There will be no admission charge, merely a collection to aid Sime in presenting his program to patients at Veterans Administration Hospitals.

February 10, while Pastor Bakken is away conducting a preaching-teaching-reaching mission at Montebello, California, Pastor Gordon Tang, missionary to Japan will be guest speaker at both services.

In 1956 American railroads carried 16 tons of freight for every man, woman and child in the United States.

Kiwaniannes To Hear Member Tell Of Being Vice President's Guest

The Lemon Grove Kiwaniannes will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday, February 4, 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. S. C. Brumbaugh, 7337 Central Avenue. Mrs. Max Goodwin will preside. Also, that evening — after the group's business has been transacted—will be given over to a description, by Mrs. Byron Netzley, of her recent sojourn among the nation's VIP's in Washington, D. C., when she and her husband attended the recent inauguration ceremonies and festivities as guests of Vice-President Nixon, a former schoolmate. The program chairman, Mrs. Frank Armstrong, thought the group would be keenly interested to hear a first-hand account of the signal honor paid to one of their number, and used her best persuasive powers in winning Mrs. Netzley's consent to speak.

Members who attended the January 7 meeting in the home of Mrs. Ben Schei enjoyed a talk on skin care by a prominent North Park cosmetitian. Mrs. Francis Faucher and Mrs. Frank Armstrong assisted Mrs. Schei as co-hosteses. A "send-off" cake for Mrs. Netzley was also featured on that evening.

HOSPITAL WOMEN PLAN 'PINKIE' PARTY

Members of the Lemon Grove unit, Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary, will hold a work party in the home of Mrs. Bert Cosby, 8277 Golden Avenue, on Tuesday, February 5—from 10 a.m. to as late in the afternoon as anyone will stay. Object: to cut out, assemble and complete "Pinkies," the amusing hand puppet that is presented by the auxiliary to child patients at Grossmont Hospital. "Pinkies" are being given out at such a rate that Mrs. E. E. Binger, the auxiliary's new sewing chairman, has called for help. Mrs. Don Lowe is the Lemon Grove area's sewing chairman; Mrs. W. K. Phillips, area chairman; Mrs. Robert Sutton, area co-chairman.

"Bring along shears, needle—and a sack of lunch," said Mrs. Cosby, in offering her home for the occasion; "coffee and tea will be provided." Members from other areas and non-members also welcome. Sounds like it's going to be fun.

TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Sacrament of The Lord's Supper will be administered at both the 9:30 and 11 o'clock worship services Sounday.

There are two sessions of church school each Sunday at 9:30 and 11 a. m. At the evening hour of 7:30 the Senior High Fellowship will share in an Interdenominational Youth Worship Service at the University Christian Church. Rev. Franklin (Bud) Held, pastor of the Westminister Presbyterian Church at Pt. Loma wil be the key speaker. His topic will be, "Summing Up The Call".

Overseas Jobs Available For Young Ladies

A representative of the International Cooperation Administration will be in San Diego from February 4 to 8 to recruit young ladies for secretaries for ICA Misions in Korea, Thialand, Indonesia and the free states of Indochina, Laos, Cambodia and Vietnam. Positions are also open in the Near East and Africa.

Interviews will be conducted at the Department of Employment, 1730 Kettner Blvd., by Miss Frances Stokes.

Positions pay approximately $5,000 a year in addition to housing and overseas benefits. To qualify applicants must be between 21 and 35 with no dependents and have good health and character. A shorthand speed of 96 words per minute and a typing speed of 50 words per minute are required.

MORE MILK CONSUMED IN 1956

The cows are happy, the farmers are elated, and the dairy executives are chortling in glee with the release of figures by the San Diego Milk Council.

"County residents drank an average of 38.04 gallons of milk during 1956 contrasted with the 37.08 gallons imbibed during 1955.

SDS STUDENTS DONATE SERVICES ON JOBS TO AID HUNGARY REFUGES

LOOK FOR THE "HOOK!"

Fishing for fish is great sport and bait is a popular lure for fetching the gullible and unwary.
"Bait" is sometimes used in advertising, too, by unethical operators to fool the public.
If the advertised item isn't as represented; if not available for inspection or immediate purchase; if the salesman belittles it—beware! It's probably just "sucker bait."

Merchants Buy New Police 2-Way Radio, Laud Johnson

Quashing rumors to the contrary, the Lemon Grove Merchants Protective Association, a division of the Chamber of Commerce, gave unstinted endorsement to the work of night patrolman-deputy sheriff.

In the same breath, directors of both the chamber and the three-man merchants protective committee voted last Friday to purchase a two-way radio broadcasting and receiving unit for Johnson's personal car which he uses in police work.

The cost of the unit will run about $600, and Johnson was instructed to work out details of its purchase with Willard Rigley, sergeant in the county sheriff's office with whom Johnson has been working in close harmony and action during his tenure as Lemon Grove's one man police force.

Ted Skeley, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, recently named chairman of that body's public relations committee said, "There was never any question of Johnson's fitness for the job, nor any question about his performance. The fact that two burglaries took place on his night off was unfortunate.

Money for the new radio equipment will come from the treasury of the Merchants Protective Asociation, and it is the intention of Chamber directors as well as the "police commission" to supplement existing funds with subscription-contributions to the service offered by the protective association, conducted as it is, as a part of Chamber of Commerce Work."

Other members of the protective committee as well as chamber directors feel that the problem is to secure additional crime protection from the sheriff's department, to supplement Johnson's work with help if possible, and to enlist the cooperation of more merchants in the protective section of the chamber.

At the Friday meeting, president W Earl Smart, who presided, named committee chairmen for the coming year, and those committees will be publicly named as soon as the lists are completed.

The next meeting, a regular one, will be held in the Homeland Justice Hall at 8 o'clock, February 5th. The meeting Friday was more or less a special session called regarding pressing needs for adequate police protection in the area. The session revolved around the need for more manpower.

TIME OUT FOR OLLIE

If Oliver Turnbull, Lemon Grove REVIEW advertising manager goes around for a few days with his left arm held high so you can see his wrist, excuse it, please.

"Ollie" idly entered a television program contest. A few days after the telecast, he was advised he had won a prize. For nine long weeks, he wondered what he had won.

Tuesday a brand new wrist watch of a famed name brand arrived.

Go ahead, ask him what time it is.

and Art and Willy Riding are new members of the Lariats.

New officers of the club include Joe Gizoni, president; Jack Goodson, treasurer; Frances Claypool, secretary; and Amos Clay, program and social chairman.

Marion Ashton is caller for the dances held every second Friday night, 8 to 10:30 at the La Mesa Elementary School building.

The March of Dimes Benefit was a huge success. Levis and Laces, Lemon 8'rs, their callers, Clarence Montgomery and Stan Bryan wish to thank Lemon Grove for asking us to co-sponsor this dance. I started writing all the names of our guest callers that came to call for the dance, when I reached number twenty they were coming so fast I just lost track. Forgive me for not mentioning all the names of the wonderful helpers we had at this benefit. It always takes a committee to put a dance on, but, it also takes the dancers to come and make it a succes. Our thanks to the many clubs that made this dance the success it was.

Levis and Laces will hold their party night dance Feb. 2, at the Lemon Grove Woman's Club. Theme? Valentine Dance. Bring your sweetheart. May we see you in a square?

Teachers Pupils For A Day

Monday of last week was a holiday for the pupils in the Lemon Grove Elementary District, but it was "back-to-school" for the teachers as they observed the annual Professional Growth Day established by the board. In keeping with a practice observed in most districts of Southern California, the certificated staff spent this day in learning new techniques, exchanging ideas, and gaining more knowledge of their professions from speakers and resource personnel invited to speak to the faculty.

Dr. Lenel G. Shuck, Social Studies Consultant from Wesleyan University, Connecticut, discussed "The Place of News Reading in a Balanced Reading Program" at the 9:00 a.m. session at the junior high auditorium. Following his address a symposium led by Dr. Virgil Howes of the County Schools discussed a program for the fast learner. Discussants were Vern Donohue, Dr. Clayton Bennett, Mrs. Anne Hoihjelle, and Clifford Hatch, also of the County Office.

Following the panel presentation the staff met in discussion circles to continue development of the ideas presented during the morning program. After luncheon served in the school cafeteria, the teachers had their choices of several demonstrations and discussions for the afternoon session. These included workshops on guidance, art, reading, creative writing, music, and room environment.

The entire program for Professional Growth Day was under the direction of S. K. Solleder, assistant Supt. of Schools.

On The SIDELINES with Bob Turnbull

El Cajon, Chula Vista and Sweetwater are shelling each other's baskets in hopes of coming out of the hectic Metro league as the second place team. Barring the unforseen, Helix's Highlanders obviously will snare the championship laureis without too much difficulty, 'cept maybe an off-nite. In fact they are making it a pleasurable runaway. Something new for the homefolks to enjoy. Out of the top eight individual scoring basketeers Helix is first, third, fifth and seventh with Gail Barsotti, Ron Mulder, Jerry Goins and John Drumm. All-Metro Barsotti is nearly 100 in front of his closest pursurer, Larry Redfoot of Spartanville.

Making its annual local appearance the fabulous Harlem Globe-all-Negro basketball team, will present their comedy sketches on the hardwood of the San Diego Arena on Wednesdty, February 6th. Their opponents will be San Diego Junior College, current aspirants of the lead of the JC Mero League. The Trotters are always god for an eve's entertainment.

Under new management the San Diego Timing Association will offer drivers at the drag-races a chance to turn "pro" and compete for war bonds as prizes or remain "amateur" and race for trophies. For the year '57 cars are competing in 26 divisions and motorcycyles in 11.

It's a real kick to see Helix's introduction of their starting five before each basketball contest. All the house lights shut their eyes and a spotlight is turned on the floor and each Highlanders dribbles into the lime-light as the yell section screams his name. Bob Devine, head coach is sure happy that he can substitute five men for his starting unit and still present a team nearly up to par as their rivals first-stringers.

Sports Roundup . . . 15 is the yardage stepped off if a gridder is caught grabbing the protective mask of his rival . . . Mission Valley Country Club may add nine holes in order to have two courses. One will be open for John Q. Public . . . There's a fishing rod on the market designed for wintertime anglers. It features a heated handle with the warmth controlled by twisting the butt cap. Sounds nice! . . . . Percentage-wise it was recently proven there is more active participation and more general all-around interest in athletics in Europe than in the good ole U.S.

A little jack can lift a car but it takes a lot of jack to keep it up!

Fevered Brows Not For Golf

Golfing is for relaxation and pleasure. But it's easy to look around you and find people near a tree decorated with their number four iron in a most shapeless condition. Their forgetting the game's first idea of athletic harmony and tranquility is easy to understand. It's easy to understand because there is no other game that matches up to golf's surprising ability to make people improve their shotmaking for lower scores. John and Jane Public will improve their game as long as they show a good sense of proportion.

Weekend golfers whose hobby, not business, is golfing shouldn't undertake their sport in a do-or-die manner. Pros have to give it all they've got as their living depends on it, but amateurs should relax and enjoy it in a recreational form.

Naturally weekend golfers should apply themselves as much as their natural talent will allow. But at the same time keep in mind that by combining practice and play you'll improve your game as well as your attitude. Approach your shots seriously in a relaxed manner if you expect to outduel your opponent. Use the proper spirit, but don't attempt unattainable goals. By striving for the impossible you deny yourself the main reward of this popular sport in which it provides enjoyment.

McClintic Now Second Brass At Helix High

A new line-up of Helix High School faculty brass took place last week as Stanley McClintic donned the robes of vice-principal of the Highlander educational plant.

He succeeds Melvin C. Grant who moved over and up to the principalship of the new Mt. Miguel High School.

Grant will move into the Grossmont District office where he will assume duties as princopal of new Mount Miguel High. The new school is scheduled to open next September.

McClintic has served as ASB adviser at Grossmont High. The University of California graduate has also had experience as a counselor and teacher.

McClintic received the Master's degree at Claremont College.

He served two years in the Navy as a radio technician during World War II. A native of San Francisco, McClintic listed sports, particularly basketball, among his avocational interests.

"I'm looking forward to my association with Helix students and faculty," McClintic said.

Short Takes...

Big lings and cow cod are continuing their plentiful appearance around the various fishing boats. Fishermen state that getting their limits still is an easy chore and bottom fishing looks to continue its lively proceedings.

Lemon Grove's Jerry Mulder, reserve center on San Diego State College's varsity basketball team, is rapidly improving and as the season progresses should see more action. Statistics on Jerry find that he has played in six games, has scored five field goals, completed two free throws, has scored a total of 12 points at an average of 2.0 points per game. Oh yes, he's also guilty of six personal fouls.

Even though they are enjoying their greatest season, the Fresno State College basketball unit will quit the California Basketball Association (CBA) this year. They will enter the same organization that S. D. State belongs —the California College Athletic Association (CCAA).

Drag Strip Racer Suffers Injuries

Unable to stop his speeding roadster, Jim Heck of San Diego suffered minor shoulder injuries at Paradise Mesa drag strip recently when his vehicle left the asphalt surface and crashed off the end of the strip. His brakes failed him. A track record was set at 153.06 mph in the standing start quarter-mile dragstrip.

Saints Defeat Foothillers

Following a spirited second-half rally the St. Augustine varsity five defeated Grossmont High School, 54-44. This non-league tilt saw guard Tom Shaules and center Jim Suda pace the Catholics with 14 and 10 points respectively. High scorer for the Foothillers was sophomore center Jerry Halterman with 25.

Knights Edged

A Santa Monica City College forward sank two free throws in the last 19 seconds of play to help his team defeat San Diego Junior College in a foreign court heartbreaker, 64-63. The one point loss saw guard Bill Tellous pace the border crew with 26 points.

Two City Upsets

Eyebrows were raised in surprise by followers of high school basketball in the San Diego area over two stunning upsets in the City Prep League. Highly favored San Diego fell to Pt. Loma by one point, 58-57 while even more surprising was Kearny's complete turnabout over title-minded Mission Bay, 39-36.

Yost Heads Expanding Pony League In Area

Robert E. Yost of Cortez Way, Spring Valley, was elected president of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Pony League at a meeting in Lemon Grove Junior High School last Monday, January 21. The meeting was under the chairmanship of John B. Steckman, past president of the league.

Other officers elected were: N. Bemis of Lemon Grove, D. A. Boone of San Diego, M. N. Lear of Monterey Heights and H. M. Keith of Spring Valley; C. E. Leep of Lemon Grove, treasurer; Mrs. Jack (Helen) Smith of Spring Valley, secretary; Charles Wood of La Mesa, players agent.

Reason for the four vice-presidents is that there are four teams in the area and it is necessary to have one vice-president for each team.

Chairman Steckman said that papers will have to be signed for the teams and ready to be sent in to headquarters by March 15. He said that there may be another team added to the present four in the very near future. The new team will be sponsored by a Lemon Grove merchant.

Steckman pointed out that the area will probably expand this year and will take in Encanto and part of La Mesa. He said that Lewis Smith, superintendent of the Grossmont High School District, has promised to let the Pony League have use of the recreation grounds of the new Mt. Miguel High School. Steckman said he obtained that information from Charles Markley, newly appointed district director of the Pony League.

Markley's territory takes in San Diego County, Arizona and part of Mexico.

The Pony League is for boys 13-14 years of age. Many people ask the question "What is meant by Pony?" The word is an abbreviation of the words "Protect Our National Youth."

It is for boys 13 and 14 years old, tries to mould proper attitudes, seeks to improve a boy's health, provides community entertainment, and develops pride in achievement.

President Bob Yost has sent out a plea for more coaches and assistant coaches to help the LG-SV Pony League this year. If any of you men can give a few hours to this worthy cause, get in touch with Bob Yost, HO 9-3352.

Little League Try-Outs Reset

Tryouts for ten-year old prospective Little Leaguers were cancelled because of rain last Saturday, but have been re-scheduled for Saturady, February 2 at 1:00 p.m., weather permitting, announced William Allen, president of the Lemon Grove Little League.

The dates previously set up for nine and eight year-old sons, Allen added, will be postponed until the ten year olders have had their tryouts.

The Lemon Grove Little League organization will hold a general meeting at the San Miguel School auditorium on Monday, February 4 at 7:30 p.m., which everyone is invited to attend.

"Drink To Good Old Days From Yon Loving Cup"

Nostalgia is one of "Doc" Shaw's (Lemon Drop Inn) most volatile traits.

He gives its full play as he gazes into space while filling coffee cups or stirring a pot of stew because fom any spot in the cafe he can see the large gallon-size silver loving cup parked either by the cash register or atop the kitchen partition.

His nostalgia is a panorama of pleasant memories about days gone by in baseball of which he was a very active part.

The cup, you see is engraved, "Sun Trophy, San Diego Base-Ball Association, Lemon Grove Champions, 1915".

Doc can recall the great and the near-great who were members of that championship team. Only two of the players are still alive, and Eddie Sonka, known to most people here-abouts is one of them.

The hot griddle league gets to going full blast as Shaw fondly handles the cup and days are recalled about that era when baseball was baseball.

BARSOTTI BY AN EYELASH

Throttled for three quarters of the game, Gael Barsotti Friday night won the Helix Highlander cage game with Chula Vista in the last 45 seconds of play via the free-throw route. Score: Helix 51; C-Vista 50.

Barsotti calmly sank the tying point and the winning marker as a roaring capacity crowd screamed in frenzy.

The victory (Barsotti's 14 points made him high individual scorer for the night) kept Helix on top of the Metro League race with a 4-0 record.

Tartan Staffers Ferret Out New Annual Buyers

Second time over, but not lightly is the theme for staff members of the Helix "Tartan" school annual, as they go into their second sales routine of the year.

With 1,400 orders in the bag, staffers will hunt out prospects they have missed in the past or who had not had an opportunity to tag Mom or Pop for the price.

According to Frank Ferguson, sales manager, Helix students have bought 1400 annuals in the first sale that was held at the beginning of the school year.

Tartan sales this year are expected to reach an all-time high, Charles Higby, staff adviser said.

The annual this year is featuring a record, which will highlight activities, cheers from football games students' voices and other sounds that wil be taken from school activities all year.

Williams Store Formally Opens Doors

SHE KNOWS A GOOD THING—Declares Pretty Doree Radiel, 1655 Dupont Drive. Here she is shown inspecting some of the prizes awarded under the Prudential Stamp Plan for the formal opening of Williams' Department Store. Owner-manager Norman Kolkey figures being a store manager has its good points when he hosts patrons like Doree. L. G. Camera Shop Foto

Personnel at Williams Department Store last week paused long enough to get the store formally opened.

Of course the store had been doing business since shortly before Christmas, but the hectic hullabaloo connected with getting a new enterprise launched sort of interfered with opening amenities.

But appropriate ceremonies, a bang-up sale, and the awarding of several valuable door prizes marked an "open for business" event.

For example, Barbara J. Miller, 3559½ Harris street, Lemon Grove, walked off with first prize which was a Universal Coffee Maker. Lube M. Pettingill, 2772 Massachusetts Avenue, Lemon Grove, took home an Arvin radio as second prize. Valuable awards went to Lisa Brandal, 3224½ Massachusetts; Myrtle Braswell, 7535 Roosevelt; and Linda Abel, 8440 El Prado; all Lemon Grove.

Doree Radici served as mistress of ceremonies over the awarding of the merchandise prizes and joined with store personnel in explaining the Prudential Premium Stamp Plan, in vogue at the store, to customers and visitors.

Aztec Moolah Woos Ivory

Since competition for football players is so keen and intense it is the desired goal of the Aztec Club to raise $50,000 to be used for State College's athletic program starting this fall.

Head football coach Paul Governali stated this fund raising program is along the path of the Pacific Coast Conference and in compliance with the National Collegiate Athletic Association code. All money received will be distributed by the Aztec foundation and supervised by the college.

Dr. Malcolm Love, president of State College, stated that he "could see no reason why boys interested in athletics as well as music should not have scholarships available to them." Dr. Love also said that "sports mean a great deal to the young people on the campus."

VFW POST IN HAM DINNER FETE

St. Philip's Ladies Plan Sale Of Bakery Goods

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's will hold a baked food sale in the corner by the U. S. National Bank on Saturday February 2, beginning at 9 a.m. and continuing until sold out.

The Diocesan Convention held in San Diego last week was a huge success. Many important matters were considered by the delegates, including the unanimous decision to raise $800,000 for expansion and aiding the establishment of the new missions in the Diocese of Los Angeles. St. Philip's share will be approximately $250 a year over and above our present Missionary Assesment. St. Philip's has been helped by a loan from this fund in the financing of its building.

Sunday at the 9:15 a.m. service the Bishop's Committee and officers for the new year will be installed.

WANDERERS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jacosz have just returned from a motor trip that carried them more than 6,000 miles away from their home at 9261 Carthay Circle, Spring Valley.

High point in their trip into the eastern United States was a Christmas holiday visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Flippen in Charleston, South Carolina where Flippen is a serviceman on duty.

Throwin' The Bull

By BOB TURNBULL

It's a Joke, Son! . . . A cool Lemon Grove bopster was shuffling down Golden Avenue when he spotted an organ grinder playing his intrument while holding his monkey on a string. The bopster sopped and took in the sights of the monkey begging for coins, somersaulting and doffing his cap. The bopster finally said to the organ-grinder, "Man, I don't dig that square music but you sure got a crazy son!"

Teen Age Book At L.G. Junior High Rings Bell

The sixth grade classes at the Lemon Grove Intermediate School ended their first semester as members of the Teen Age Book Club. Highlight of these busy months came when the students selected forty six free dividend books earned from their purchases since September.

Rolland Purves, teacher-sponsor of the TAB Club, described it as a unique plan that enables boys and girls to buy monthly at low cost a wide range of good books especially selected for their appeal to teen-agers. Last year over four million books were obtained by the 16,000 students in schools throughout the nation.

"We find that as members of the TAB Club our sixth graders are now reading and enjoying more good books than ever before," Purves explained.

Yellow Hunting Garb

Latest news on color for hunting clothes is that yellow instead of red has been termed safest for hunters to wear. Test made by U. S. Army and by other interested parties show conclusively that yellow is the most dominant color. Tests were made at all hours of the day and under various weather conditions and it was found that yellow and then orange were the most easily seen and the most quickly identified. Red, formerly used for protective covering, was found rather far down on the list. (It has been known to printers for many years that black on orange make the most easily read signs. Only trouble is that orange fades rather quickly in our lovely sunshine.)

was sold to the whites for wampum to feed his tribe.

The tale just didn't check out with a couple of the small fry who evidently had been on rockhound expeditions. Said one: "There are no topaz mines in Arizona, maybe he meant turquoise."

"No," quickly admonished another, "he means tourmaline."

That's why books on gems in the local library have been getting a special workout from at least seven grown-ups this week.

—o—

We're sorry the proposed taxpayers group threatened by the Men's Club recently didn't get off the ground as advertised. Bigger and bigger budgets, more and more governmental expenses, bigger and better federal giveaways have just about frustrated every citizen. It is too bad individuals feel so hopeless when it comes to governmental waste. Particularly frustrating was the president's recent budget. The administration had led us into expecting a tax cutback along about now. Instead they toss a couple more billions in for expenses.

It seems to me that it makes no difference whether it is a family household budget or the federal one, local taxpayers groups, operating objectively, could have a tremendous affect upon those in government who apparently believe no one wants a slowdown of wanton waste of tax dollars.

One thing such a group could stand for is refusal to accept the political spending philosophy that "if we don't get it for you it'll be spent somewhere else". Tax spenders thus pit one district against another.

Think of the deterrent effect it would be if this political district, and all others, would simply sit on their haunches and say, "we don't want it if it takes it away from some other taxpayers." The small detail I haven't been able to work out is how to get foreign countries, who are presently enjoying our largess, to do the same.

on record in regard to "fund raising for beautifying grounds of our school." Our unit "beautifies the school" by contributing yearly over 100 books to the PTA children's library of the Casa de Oro School.

Signed,
Mrs. Mark Lowthian,
President of the
Casa de Oro PTA

Dear Editor:

The "shot gun" letter that you received from reader Seubert has aroused my reaction, enough so I had to buy paper and pen to write you, as I don't usually involve myself this way.

I haven't the statistics behind me that reader Seubert seems to have, but I do believe something is drastically wrong with our school system today. I say this from my own observations, and memory, comparing my children, four of which are in school from kindergarten to fifth grade, to myself at their age. (I know that memory may be deceiving, but I'm really not that old.)

I started school, in a one room building which housed about 30 pupils from the first to 8th grade, in Dehesa Valley. In that school, which I only finished the first grade in, I learned to print the alphabet and to read, of sorts, and spell somewhat. Now my No. 2 son was in the second grade last year. He could spell Mississippi, hippopotamus, and some thing that started anti. . . . and ended estabishism (whew) and couldn't even spell the simple little adverbs—"when, what, where, and how". Mr. Editor! Do you spell "Mississippi' and "hippopotamus" more than you spell "when"—or "where?"

Recently I attended a special open house day in the class room of my No. 1 son. There I saw a little skit about trees and lumber, and by-products, transportation and all, very cleverly done. I'm sure a lot of work, practice, and studying went into it. It was nice. The teacher also impressed me, and my wife, in the fantastic mathematical ability of the class as a whole. No.1 Son is pretty good at math, too. Better than me anyhow, and I use it in my job, always. But No. 1 son doesn't even know his alphabet yet, correctly, and can't read some little five letter words.

Mr. Editor, I may be old fashioned, but I believe without the ability to read, "yuh just ain't gonna learn nuthin".

A couple of months ago, I think, I took No. 3 son's reading book, who is in the second grade, and covered the pictures. Surprisingly he could read it fairly well —regardless, but No. 2 and No. 1 son, third and fifth grade respectively, couldn't read it half as well, with pictures covered.

Reader Seubert doesn't believe the schools are quite as overcrowded the schools would like us to believe. All I can say is that I was attending half day classes in 1943—14 years ago, because the schools were supposedly over crowded, and yet we are paying (who khows how much more school taxes—bonds, etc.) for more schools, and there are more schools, but still "overcrowded"!!

I have an aunt by marriage, who has been a school teacher for about 22 years. She and my uncle have never had any children, as most of your school teachers seem to be alike in that respect, yet she can tell me all about how I should bring up mine, (and everybody elses).

Mr. Editor—How come I hated every teacher I had in school that wasn't married, or didn't have any children?—Excepting 2 or 3. I don't think they, or the teachers now know "the score". —because we know if you have any children, that kids aren't the same in school, as in the home (thank God)!

At home they would have got "whaled" good for some of the things they pull in school.

I remember in the first grade, in Dehesa Valley, I got my first spanking by my teacher, and my last!! I was a very good pupil, I learned (somewhere between the 3rd and 7th grade) that they had outlawed "capital punishment" by teachers. Then it was every teacher for him (or her) self! Who was it said—"Spare the rod and spoil the child?" — I believe it! (I'm not old though!)

Reader Seubert mentioned something about teachers salary. I'll bet there are more teachers working today that have found time and money to visit foreign lands, or countries, than the average working man, or woman, in the country.

Speaking of "average working people" Mr. Editor, I classify as average all those making less or as much as $4500.00 a year, which I point out as more than the "beginner's" teacher's salary.

Mr Editor—I make, with the Grace of God, and one H____ of a lot of overtime at the plant, about $5,000 a year, and it's all I can do to keep "body and soul"—and family—together. I do keep 5 children, my own home and plenty of bills satisfied, but that is all.

If my wife worked, I didn't have any children, and I still made as much as now—wow!—what a ball I could have—like the many "teachers" or they call themselves, have!

Mr. Editor, and Reader Seubert, and myself—let's all make more time available to visit the schools our children are attending. Let's all find out our particular gripes, and other discrepancies, that we have with our schools and teachers. We owe it to ourselves, our children, our future children, our grandchildren—to be satisfied with our method of teaching, or "bringin' up" that is prevalent today.

The children of today are the rulers of tomorrow.

Let's see now! Reader Willets, by having an income of $5,000 a year and five children has only $119.60 or 2% held from his pay. A childless, married teacher (or worker) has with-held for the government 17% or $837.20 proving that parenthood has some monetary advantages.

The Editor.

Dear Editor:

Your heart—only one to a customer!

During the month of February the San Diego County Heart Association will conduct its annual Heart Fund Drive in your community. The goal for the entire county is for $110,000.

Fund campaigns and the rapidity with which one follows the other are often disturbing as it seems like someone's hand is forever in one's pocket. Point to consider, however, is that the percentage of deaths by heart diseases in your community and in California are now the highest in history! According to the California Public Health Statistical Report (just released) cardiovascular-renal diseases accounted for 54.2% of all deaths in California for 1955 — that's more deaths caused by heart diseases than all other causes put together, including cancer, polio, TB, pneumonia and accidents!

Obviously, only through medical science and research—costly undertaking which must be finaunced by public subscription—can this appalling killer be combated.

Mr. Goodwin, your help is sorely needed in informing your readers of the work, programs and objectives of the San Diego County Heart Association. This year, for the first time in San Diego County history, a door-to-door collection of funds—called "Heart Sunday" (on Feb. 24 in Lemon Grove) will be held. Will you assist us in acquainting your readers with the "Heart" story?

In the three years we have worked with you on Heart Fund campaigns, the Lemon Grove REVIEW has always been exceptionally outstanding for its wonderful cooperation — for which we express our sincere appreciation.

submits, for approval by the board, a claim of the El Cajon Veterinary Hospital in the amount of $7.50 for professional services to a dog hit by a car on November 28, 1956, brought in by Mr. Hemness (dog control man), for treatment. (Note by D. H. I called the vet hospital and a gent answered from his home. Said it was a long time ago and he didn't remember what became of the dog, whether it recovered or not. Said there were two or three doctors at the hospital, and he had no records at his home. Several years ago my beautiful cat got his by two cars, one following the other, and I took him to the cat hospital. He was too badly hurt to recover, so the vet put him to sleep. Cost me $7.50.)

Board Eyes Low Teacher Salary Hurdle

Pay envelopes occupied the major portion of the Monday night session of the Lemon Grove School District Board of Education.

The minimum salary level adopted by San Diego city school system, $4,300 yearly compared with Lemon Grove minimum level of $3,900 may throw cold water on the teacher recruitment efforts of assistant superintendent S. K. Solleder. He is to leave shortly on a recruitment trip throughout the midwest.

Proposed legislation by the Legislature to set a statewide minimum of $4,200 came up for discussion, so Solledef was informed unofficially by the board members that he might tell applicants he interviewed that minimum salary level is under consideration now, and that there is some possibility of state action in setting a cellar figure on teachers' salaries.

The board set a tentative schedule for the 1957-58 school year with the fall opening slated for September 10th and the close of the term to fall on June 13th. The dates permit 178 teaching days and at least 5 workshop or in-service days.

Four San Diego firms shared in the award of a contract totaling $1,286 for furnishing fence materials for the maintainance building. In other actions, the board reviewed and reaffirmed in the main existing insurance programs and policies.

Persistent

Formal written request of the executive committee of Fiesta del Pacifico for an appropriation of $15,000 to be used for nationally publicizing the Fiesta del Pacifico; and letters from Charles B. Oldsen and Dr. Charlotte E. Thompson protesting an appropriation to the fiesta. Gosh, those fiesta boys are persistent. This is the third time they have approached the board on this delicate matter, except that their first request was for $50,000.—D. H.)

Lemon Grove area Civil Defense workers were advised that a CD unit had been organized at Tierra del Sol, formerly called overflow from the Lemon Grove evacuation overflow from the Lemon Grove district.

TRAILER LIFE can be nice. As evidenced here by pretty Mona Dee, who is a mobile home enthusiast and will be at the Life Trailer Show, Jan. 31 to Feb. 3, at Great Western Exhibit Bldg.

EXCUSE IT PLEASE

Lemon Grove Fire Chief Harold Hensley sort of figures that the REVIEW was giving him and his men more credit than is due them when a story about the department report said the time element of the report was the month of December.

Through a reportorial error, the time covered by the report was given as one month, when it should have been listed as covering the year 1956.

Not that the department didn't deserve the implied extra praise.

Freckles Home: It Pays to Advertise, Pal

Freckles is home, all because it pays to advertise—in the Lemon Grove REVIEW.

Freckles, in case you didn't know, is a white and tan cocker spaniel belonging to the E. W. Evers family at 3231 Par Dr., La Mesa. Last week Freckles jumped out of the family auto while Mrs. Evers was on a shopping trip to Lemon Grove.

Half the town joined in the hunt for Freckles, who as more people joined in the search, grew more frightened and hid out from would-be rescuers.

Mrs. Evers put an ad in the REVIEW Wednesday and bright and early Thursday, a lady living on North St. in Lemon Grove saw the ad about the missing pooch, glanced out her front window and saw bedraggled and exhausted Freckles in front of her house. She immediately telephoned Mrs. Evers and Freckles was saved.

The benefactress insisted upon remaining anonymous, declined a profferred reward, and commented, "If I hadn't seen the REVIEW advertisement, Freckles would just have been another stray dog to me."
